G D G
They put a parking lot on a piece of land where the supermarket used to stand.

G D G
Before that they put up a bowling alley on the site that used to be the local palais.

C G D G
That's where the big bands used to come and play, my sister went there on a Saturday.

C G
Come dancing, all her boyfriends used to come and call. Why not

D C G G
Come dancing, it's only natural

G D G
Another Saturday, another date, she would be ready but she'd always make them wait

G D G
In the hallway, in anticipation, he didn't know the night would end up in frustration

C G D G
He'd end up blowing all his wages for the week all for a cuddle and a peck on the cheek

C G
Come dancing, That's how they did it when I was just a kid, And when they said

D C G G
Come dancing, My sister always did.

My sister should have come in at midnight, and my mum would always sit up and wait.

Em                      D                      C                      Em                      D                      C
It always ended up in a big row when my sister used to get home late.

G                      D                      D                      G
[spoken] Out of my window I can see them in the moonlight, two silhouettes saying good-
G                      D                      D                      G
night by the garden gate. [unitelligible scolding]

Em                      D                      C                      Em                      D                      C
The day they knocked down the palais my sister stood and cried.

The day they knocked down the palais part of my childhood died (just died)

[Power Rock] Em*    D**    C    [repeat 4x]

[Sweetly]    G    D    D    G

G    D    G
Now I'm grown up and playing in a band and there's a car park where the palais used to stand

G    D    G
My sister's married and she lives on an estate, her daughters go out now it's her turn to wait

C    G    D    G
She knows they get away with things she never could, but if I asked her I wonder if she would

C    G
Come dancing, Come on sister, have yourself a ball, don't be afraid to

D                      C                      G                      G
Come dancing, it's only natural

C    G
Come dancing, just like the palais on a Saturday and all her friends will

D                      C                      Em                      Em                      G***
Come dancing where the big bands used to play
