CHORDS

[Intro]

A D A E7 D A

[Verse 1]

A

I've been here a month or more, stuck in this old city.

People that have to call it home they're the ones I pity,

D

Lord, I'm homesick.

A

A7

And blues are the only songs I ever seem to pick.

E7

D

I get out and walk the street 'til I get blisters on my feet.

A

A7

I'm southbound.

[Fill]

A D A E7 D A

[Verse 2]

A

I'm all right 'til late at night I'm sitting by my window,

I count sheep but I can't sleep for listening to that train blow

D

I begin to pine

A

A7

When I hear that great big engine rolling down the line

E7

D

I'm going back and spend some time where I can have fun when I ain't got a dime,

A

A7

I'm southbound.

[Fill]

A D A E7 D A

[Verse 3]

A

Southbound! She's burnin' the ground and I don't mean maybe

A7

Sure I'm glad I caught this train cos I'd like to see my baby

D

Lord I'm lonesome

A7

I long to see them hills that I come from

E7

Listen to the engine rattle and roar

D

She's taking me back home once more!

A

I'm southbound
