TENNESSEE BIRDWALK

[Verse 1]
G

Take away the trees and the birds all have to sit upon the ground, uum^D
And tke away their wings and the birds will have to walk to get around^C
And take away the bird baths and dirty birds will soon be ev'rywhere^D
Take away their feathers and the birds will walk around in underwear

[Pre-Chorus]

Take away their chirp and the birds will have to whisper when they sing (chirp chirp)^D
And take away their common sense and they'll be headed southward in the spring

[Chorus]

Oh remember me my darling when spring is in the air^G
And the bald headed birds are whisp'ring ev'rywhere^C
When you see them walking southward in their dirty underwear^D
That's the Tennessee Bird walk^G

[Verse 2]

~~A~~ A How about some trees so the birds won't have to sit upon the ground, uum^{E7}
And how about some wings so the birds won't have to walk to get around^D
~~A~~ A And how about a bird bath or two so the birds will all be clean^{E7}
~~B~~ B How about some feathers so their underwear no longer will be seen

[Pre-Chorus]

~~A~~ A ~~chirp~~ ^{twee} How about a ~~chirp~~ so the birds won't have to whisper when they sing (chirp ~~chirp~~)^(x7)
And how about some common sense so they won't be blocking traffic in the spring^{E7}

[Chorus]

~~A~~ A Oh remember me my darling when spring is in the air^D
And the bald headed birds are whisp'ring ev'rywhere

When you see them walking southward in their dirty underwear
That's the Tennessee Bird walk (chirp chirp)

[Outro]

That's the Tennessee Bird walk (chirp chirp)

That's the Tennessee Bird walk
